WE ARE PROUD TO TELL YOU
ABOUT HOW WE SUPPORT
CHILDREN WITH ADDITIONAL NEEDS IN OUR SCHOOL

Who can I talk to about my child's special educational needs?

My child's Class Teacher:

They are responsible for ensuring your child is making progress and liaising with the SENDCO about the support they may need. They should be the first person you speak to about any concerns.

The SENDCo:

Jo Lawrence

She is responsible for coordinating the support for pupils with SEND, providing support for staff and communicating with parents.
j.lawrence@consortiumtrust.org.uk

Senior Lead in School:

Please speak to Simon Lea if you cannot meet the class teacher or SENDCo for any reason.

The SEND Trustee: The Trust has a SEND Trustee^k who can be contacted through the school. They are responsible for monitoring the school's SEND Provision through regular contact with central team and school staff.

How do teachers at my child's school identify and assess pupils with SEND?

We gather information from parents/carers, from teachers, from pupils, and from other agencies such as medical professionals or therapists.

We use various standardised assessments to monitor your child's progress in school.

We use the 7C's assessment and intervention toolkit to help us set targets for your child.

We observe children and use our professional knowledge and experience to see what support they might need.

We refer children to other agencies for further assessment where needed, in consultation with parents/carers.

What kinds of SEND are provided for at my child's school?

There are four main broad areas of SEND:

Every child's needs are considered on an individual basis at our school. Our school is experienced in supporting children with a range of needs including ADHD, autism, dyslexia or learning difficulties, motor difficulties, sensory needs, speech and language or communication difficulties, visual and hearing impairments. St Edmund's Primary School is committed to inclusive learning and wellbeing for all our pupils.

How does the school communicate with the parents/carers of children with SEND?

HOW IS EXTRA SUPPORT ALLOCATED TO PUPILS?

Decisions are based on the needs of the pupils and provision identified in EHCPs. The Academy Head, SENDCo and class teacher agree what resources, training and support is needed. This is reviewed regularly, and changes made as needed.

High Tariff Needs Funding can be applied for where pupils with severe or complex needs require an exceptionally high level of support.

Support might include intervention groups, or individual support in the classroom.

How does the school evaluate the effectiveness of provision for pupils with SEND?

Termly review of all pupils with SEND with the Academy Head, class teacher and SENDCo alongside discussion with parents/carers

Pre and post intervention data including use of specialist tools such as Boxall Profile, VSEND, 7C's, Engagement Model, Wellcomm

Monitoring in the classroom through lesson observations, Learning Walks, and book scrutiny. Pupil progress meetings with teachers

How accessible is the environment at St Edmund's Primary School?

The school is a single storey extended Victorian building with no steps.

We have wide corridors and doors. We are a small school with limited space to store equipment. We have accessible changing and toilet facilities.

Our playing field is a few minutes' walk from the school.

The playground is flat. Provision can be made for a range of physical and sensory needs.

What other agencies does the school work with to support SEND children?

Where necessary, and in consultation with parents/carers, the school liaises with the following outside agencies in Suffolk and Norfolk:

What is the expertise of the staff and what training is provided at my child's school?

Qualified Teacher Status for all teachers except trainees

Jo Lawrence is the SENDCO with National Award for SEN Coordination.

First Aiders and access within Consortium Trust to Mental Health First Aiders, Mental Health Champion

How is transition into and out of my child's school arranged?

Who, outside of school, can I turn to for advice and support if I am not happy?

We really want to work with families to make sure you and your children are happy and successful in our school. We are always here to listen. Please come and talk to us if you have any concerns.

Our complaints policy is on the school's website.

The Special Educational Needs and Disability Information, Advice and Support Service (SENDIASS) provide impartial information for the parents/carers of all children and young people with SEND, up to the age of 25.

SENDIASS in Suffolk <https://www.suffolksendiass.co.uk/>

SENDIASS in Norfolk <http://www.norfolksendpartnershiass.org.uk/>

In some circumstances you can appeal to the SEN and Disability Tribunal. <https://www.gov.uk/special-educational-needs-disability-tribunal>

All schools and Suffolk County Council or Norfolk County Council have complaints procedures which are followed.

More Information

Please read the Behaviour and Inclusion Policy and Teaching, Learning and Curriculum Policy on the Consortium Trust website.

You may also have heard about the 'local offer'. This is part of the Children and Families Act 2014. Local Authorities must publish a local offer setting out information about the provision in their area for children and young people with SEND. Schools contribute to the local offer by sending information to the local authority.
